

Richard D. Hamill, Ph.D.Chairman of the Board

Dr. Hamill has over 40 years of experience in the medical industry. During his tenure at Hycor Biomedical, Inc. as founder, Chairman, President and CEO, he grew it profitably through new product development and by integrating five strategic acquisitions. Dr. Hamill joined G.D. Searle & Co. serving under Donald Rumsfeld, then President and CEO of Searle, Dr. Hamill created an organization which developed and implemented regulatory strategies and conducted worldwide audits covering all activities in manufacturing, quality assurance, R&D and clinical research. Dr. Hamill spent 10 years with Baxter Laboratories in senior management positions in research administration, quality assurance and regulatory. He received B.S. and Ph.D. degrees in pharmacy from the University of Utah.

Antone J. LazosChief Executive Officer and Director

Mr. Lazos has over 35 years of experience in the medical industry. He founded and served as, Chairman and CEO of Medical Imaging Centers of America ("MICA") which was one of the first major companies providing outpatient MRI and diagnostic imaging services. Mr. Lazos was elected Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Quality Imaging Association, an industry group representing 43 companies and corporations that delivered diagnostic imaging services. He held several key positions with Baxter Laboratories. Mr. Lazos has served on the Boards of several public and private medical companies. He received his Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Iowa State University and his Masters of Business Administration from the Harvard Business School.

Eugene J. ZurloDirector

Mr. Zurlo has over 40 years experience in the medical industry. He has served in various executive management positions in major companies, was a founder of several start-up companies. He is Chairman and founder of Alpine Biologicals, Inc. and is Managing Director of the Zurlo Investment Trust. Previously, Mr. Zurlo was Chairman, CEO and founder of HemaSure, Inc., and before that held senior executive positions at Millipore Corporation, Baxter Healthcare and the New York Blood Center. Mr. Zurlo is a director of Penny Creek Distributors, Easy Tray, Plasma Technologies and Radio Properties. He holds a B.S. in pharmacy from Fordham University and an M.S. in pharmacy administration from Long Island University.

Sherri MedinaDirector

Sherri Medina is Executive Director of CareMeridian, a leading provider of residential subacute care services to the catastrophically ill and injured population. She is also the Chairman of the Board at Mission Hospital Regional Medical Center. Previously, from 1997-2006, Sherri served as CEO/Owner of CareMeridian. Sherri is also a principal partner in Journey Healthcare Properties, a firm which owns and leases healthcare facilities in California and Nevada. From 1995-1997, Sherri was Senior Vice-President of Rehabilitation Services, and an officer of Regency Health Services, Inc., a leading national provider of post-acute care services and California's largest operator of long-term care facilities (NYSE - RHS). Regency had previously acquired South Coast Rehabilitation Services (SCRS) that Sherri founded, which provided physical, occupational, speech, and respiratory therapy services to hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, outpatient clinics, and home health agencies.

Sherri specialized in the area of geriatric neurology prior to founding SCRS. She also has extensive therapeutic experience in the area of traumatic brain injury.

Sherri was named 1994 Entrepreneur of the Year in Healthcare in Orange County, an award sponsored by Inc. magazine and Ernst & Young, and received a Women in Business Award from the Orange County Business Journal in 1996. She has been a member of Young Presidents Organization (YPO) since 1994 and the Women's Executive Round Table of Orange County since 1998. Sherri earned her BA in 1982 and MS in 1984, both in Communicative Disorders, from the University of Redlands.